Sheepscot Valley Health Center Welcomes Rachel Moore, PA

COOPERS MILLS—Staff at Sheepscot Valley Health Center will be welcoming Rachel Moore, PA to the medical team this summer. Rachel recently completed the University of New England's Master of Science in Physician Assistant Studies Program. In 2015, she obtained a Bachelor of Science in Biology from Pacific University, OR.

Rachel shared that she is excited to give back to the community through Sheepscot Valley Health Center due to its philosophy of providing a medical home for its patients. She believes in engaging with her patients as a whole to help them accomplish their personal goals. She is passionate about helping her patients understand their health, as well as their options for treatment and preventative care.

Rachel will be joining physician Kathryn Wistar, podiatrist Henry Scheuller, physician assistant Zachary Wissman, family nurse practitioners Ashley Hamilton-Ellis and Amber Shepherd, and psychiatric nurse practitioner Marta Hall. In addition, Karen Curry offers behavioral health services to patients of the practice.

Sheepscot Valley Health Center is part of HealthReach Community Health Centers, a group of eleven Federally Qualified Health Centers in Central and Western Maine. Dedicated providers deliver high quality medical and behavioral health care to citizens in over 80 rural communities. To ensure access to everyone, HealthReach accepts Medicare, MaineCare and major insurances. In addition, an Affordable Care Program is available to uninsured and underinsured residents as well as assistance with applications for programs that help with the cost of health care and medications including the Health Insurance Marketplace.

A private, non-profit with a 44-year history, HealthReach is funded by patient fees, grants and by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of an award totaling $4,053,390 with 82.5 percent financed with non-governmental sources.
